THE KNIGHTS TAFARN

HISTORY WITHIN TOUCHING DISTANCE

From ancient burial chambers to medieval castles, Pembrokeshire is steeped in history and legend - and at Bluestone, the county's fascinating past lies within touching distance.

Within a few miles of the site are the majestic castles of Carew and Llawhaden, while even closer lie the remains of Slebech Church, around which the Knights Hospitallers of the Sovereign Order of St John established a commandery from which to protect 12th century pilgrims heading for St Davids. Some say the sword found on the nearby 'sacred isle' and currently on display at the National Museum of Wales is the very one used to knight new members of the order.

There are two scheduled monuments within the boundaries of the Bluestone site itself, Castell Coch and Newton North Church.
